ahenderson@longlevit.com

Abbie joined Long & Levit in 2023. Her practice focuses on defending clients in legal malpractice matters, disciplinary matters pending before the California Commission on Judicial Performance, and other civil litigation cases. Before joining Long & Levit, Abbie was with Robie & Matthai, where she also focused on defending legal malpractice matters. She is both practical and creative about helping clients find solutions to their particular challenges so they can move forward. Most of Abbie's practice has involved representing trustees and receivers in both federal and state court proceedings giving her unique experience in representing lawyers in a diverse array of forums.
